Digital Art Contest

Theme: “Peace is the Work of Justice”

DECLARATION OF ORIGINAL ARTWORK AND ARTIST RELEASE FORM

I hereby warrant that the artwork submitted herewith is my original unpublished work that has neither been copied nor reproduced from any other artwork or open data source by tracing, duplicating, or other means. I further confirm that the artwork has not been used or submitted in any other contest.

Upon winning the DOJ Human Rights 2020 Digital Arts Contest, I hereby assign and permanently transfer to the Department of Justice (DOJ), all of my rights, title to and interest in the original art submitted herewith, including the copyright and/or the right to register its copyright therein, vesting full ownership of such winning artwork upon DOJ to use for whatever purpose and in whatever form or medium DOJ may deem necessary or appropriate.

Should my submission not be chosen as a winning entry, I hereby authorize DOJ to use the same for exhibitions, public relations, or reports without any cost, compensation or need for further written authorization.

I hereby confirm my agreement and voluntary consent to the above provisions, fully understanding that the due execution of this Declaration and Release Form is a prerequisite for consideration and evaluation of my entry.

I acknowledge that I have read and understood the rules/guidelines of the Department of Justice Human Rights Summit 2020 Digital Art Contest and agree to abide by the conditions stipulated therein and with the decision of the organizers/ Human Rights Summit Committee.

Understanding that the DOJ respects and upholds the right to privacy and protection of personal information, I hereby give my consent to the DOJ to use my name, school, and appropriate personal details for contest, announcement, and informational purposes.
