

Accreditation Procedure for Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Practitioner/ Neutral

This document describes the procedure of how an individual ADR practitioner/neutral not affiliated to any ADR provider organization (APO) can apply for or renew his/her accreditation. Accredited and certified ADR practitioners shall be permitted to offer dispute resolution services to government agencies. They shall be allowed to provide ADR training, systems design or similar services to government agencies subject to such additional guidelines as the OADR may prescribe. On the other hand, government agencies shall only partner with or engage the services of the OADR-accredited ADR practitioners. OADR-accredited individual ADR practitioners shall be included in the roster of accredited providers posted on OADR's website and official Facebook page.
